

Here's what happens...

Jesus tells a parable, or story, about a son who takes his inheritance while his father is still alive, then runs away and squanders the money in wild living. He humbly goes back home, and the father welcomes him with loving arms and a celebration. This story is a picture of God's deep love for us.

Bible Point:

We are deeply loved.

"And the very hairs on your head are all numbered. So don't be afraid; you are more valuable to God than a whole flock of sparrows" (Luke 12:7).

Through the Week

- As a family, make an effort to say "I love you" more often this week.
- Say "I love you" when you first see each other in the morning.
- Say "I love you" when you part ways for the day for school, work, or other activities.
- Say "I love you" before bed.
- Say "I love you" (and thank you!) any time someone in your family does something you appreciate.

Talk About This...

- Tell each person in your family one thing you love about them.
