

Here's what happens...

Saul is a devout Jewish man committed to imprisoning and even killing Christians. Then he meets Jesus, and everything changes. He realizes he was trapped in anger and sin, even when he thought he was doing the right thing. After meeting Jesus, he follows him and shares his love with everyone he can.

Bible Point:

We are free from sin.

"And I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns" (Philippians 1:6).

Family Together Time

- Collect some "clean" trash, like cardboard food boxes, junk mail, or easily washed plastic.
- Get some glue, scissors, markers, and tape, and use your creativity! Make a new creation out of the trash.
- You can work together or have each family member make their own creation.
- Examples could include animals, purposeful inventions, picture frames, or anything else you want to make!
- Talk about how you took trash and made it into a new creation.
- Read 2 Corinthians 5:17, and talk about what it means to be a new creation, free from sin.

Talk About This...

- Imagine you were grounded or punished. What's the first thing you'd do when it was over?
